Application for Non-Degree Student

An applicant who wishes to enroll in undergraduate classes at SMWC without pursuing a degree must apply as a non-degree student. A non-degree student may register on a space-available basis. Permission to enroll as a non-degree student is valid for one academic year only. Credits earned as a non-degree student cannot be applied to a degree program until the student has been admitted officially to the College as a degree student. Non-degree students are not eligible for financial aid.
