

SMWC Adjunct Faculty Position Announcement

Posting Date: June 25, 2019

Date Available: August 12, 2019

Department: Dept. of Languages & Literature

Position Title: Adjunct Faculty Philosophy

Job Description:

Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College invites applications for an adjunct position in philosophy to begin in August 2019. Faculty report on August 12 and classes begin August 19. Responsibilities include teaching PH200 Introduction to Philosophy for the general studies curriculum in a traditional classroom format. The successful candidate must be available to teach MWF morning classes at least in the Fall term, and is expected to have a commitment to teaching excellence as well as a strong commitment to the mission of a liberal arts college.

Additional information on the academic programs may be found at www.smwc.edu. Salary based on qualifications and experience. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until position is filled. Send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, and letters from two references electronically to humanresources@smwc.edu or mail to Human Resources, Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College; Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, IN 47876. AA/EOE

Qualifications & Experience:

Requirements include possessing a Master's in philosophy or related field with graduate philosophy courses. Preferred qualifications include evidence of successful experience teaching undergraduates and familiarity with relevant computer and instructional technology.