

Graduate Nursing Program
 Family Nurse Practitioner Concentration
Post Master’s FNP Certificate Program of Study

YEAR ONE
Fall Semester		Spring Semester		Summer Term (8weeks)
YEAR TWO
Prerequisites (see note below) *+NU 513	3	*NU 525 Advanced Physical Assessment	3	NU 535 Mental Health Considerations for Outpatient Primary Care	2
Pathophysiology for Advanced Practice *+NU 519 Pharmacology for Advanced Practice Nursing (Both for 16 weeks)	3	+NU 528 Clinical Reasoning and Diagnostics +NU 530 FNP Assessment Clinicals (50 hours)	2 1	NU 547 Healthcare Informatics	1
YEAR THREE
* NU 540 Clinical Management I (150 clinical hours)	4	NU 560 Culminating Clinical Experience (300 clinical hours)	4	NU 546 Transition to Advanced Practice (100 clinical hours)	2
+NU 550 Clinical Management II (150 clinical hours)	4	NU 566 Evidence-Based Best Practice Project (Both for 16 weeks)	2	NU 544 Nurse Practitioner Review	1

Successful completion of a 3-credit graduate-level pathophysiology course and a 3-credit graduate-level pharmacology course is a prerequisite for program admission (these courses must be listed on transcripts provided when applying to the program). If needed, both these courses are offered in fall semester prior to starting certificate program curriculum in the spring.

*First eight weeks of the semester +Second eight weeks of the semester

Courses in bold include clinical hours

Total Credit Hours: 24

Total Clinical Hours: 750 Subject to change as determined by the Department or the College

Updated 02.13.2024