

Veronica “Roni” O'Connor Kindley and husband Mike are celebrating their 10th wedding anniversary this year, having married at SMWC on a full moon 10/15/16. They are enjoying their grandchildren and a blessed life, frequent travel, attending concerts, playing live music and visiting with friends keeps them young at 60!

Ann Englum Staats is doing well, still living independently in her home in Paris, Illinois, at the age of 91.

Mary Ann Tyl has completed her bucket list. She has gone to Australia and has held koalas many times over. Went to Sydney and Cairnes in '25 and Brisbane in '26.

Margaret “Peggy” McCormick-Platz and Tony pilgrimaged to Italy in June and celebrated Pentecost at the Vatican. Shared a lot of family time in 2025. The newest Platz leprechaun, Adaleigh, arrived in January. Peggy is the director of the Ursuline Education Network and Tony continues as a manager for Pike Engineering.

Julie Rumschlag retires in July after 38 years of service in public education. She and Susan look forward to relaxing trips to independent bookstores! Julie travels from Delaware to Indiana to help her siblings care for their parents.

Catherine “Cathy” Rumschlag '87 lives with their father. And Cynthia Rumschlag Stark '94 sends home-cooked meals!

Kristine Binder lives and teaches in Chicago. She recently earned her master's degree and LBS1 endorsement. After the loss of both parents this year, she keeps moving forward while managing her coaching/social media business and embracing new opportunities.

Dr. Tracy Collings Richardson celebrated 30 years of teaching at SMWC in December. As the MA in Music Therapy is a distance program, Tracy lives part-time in Nashville pursuing songwriting in her free time. Daughters: Savanna teaches Gaelic in Chicago, Illinois, Vanessa is sideline reporter for Houston Rockets. Son Collin is deployed.

Susan Albrecht Sivore still works at State Farm in Bloomington. Her third oldest will graduate from the University of Dayton in May and her youngest is a sophomore at U of I. Susan connected with fellow Woodies and loved celebrating Nan's retirement from State Farm!

It's been awhile since Sally Jensen Kaminski has checked in! She hopes fellow classmates are healthy and happy as most of them are entering a new decade--the sixties!! Sally currently lives in Durango, Colorado and loves it. She has two grown children and two granddaughters, all living in Indiana.

Nelleke Knarr enjoys living and working in Grand Rapids, Michigan. She teaches piano full-time at a music studio, sings in the GR Women's Chorus, attends protests regularly, swims, hikes, contra dances and visits with her two daughters. She also travels regularly to Danville, Indiana, to visit her dad, 94.