

Violations of Residential Life Community Standards and Policies

Students provided college housing are expected to have knowledge of and adhere to all policies outlined in the Residence Hall Handbook. Student and nonstudent guests are expected to follow these policies under the guidance of their host. (See Policy on Guests and/or Associated or Passive Participation).

Other College Policies refers to the violation of other published college policies not specifically described in this document including but not limited to traffic and parking regulations, Residential Life housing contract, published academic departmental policies, and employment guides.
